

Christmas: The Real Story

“People are fascinated by what Scripture really says! This study opens doors for a flood of conversation! It gets people thinking!”

- Mr. William Danner, DRE
St. Michael Roman Catholic Church
Indianapolis, IN

“This short course challenges people to look at what they believe about the Christmas narrative and rethink how Jesus’ birth, life, death, resurrection, and commission to us affects our lives.”

- Pastor Peter Jark-Swain
St. Johns Lutheran Church
Columbus, NE

“I appreciate the historical perspective, and the fact that so much biblical information is consolidated in a concise way. Many people who have read the Bible numerous times may not take the time to put the pieces together in the way that this curriculum does.”

- Very Rev. Catherine M. Thompson
Trinity Episcopal Church
Natchitoches, LA

“I am sold on CTRS! It’s on target; it’s the truth; it harmonizes the biblical story surrounding Jesus’ birth! It’s stimulating – a great resource. I have traveled in Israel and have seen, in the village of Ephraim, a 4th century home such as that described in this study.”

- Rev. Dr. Willis Britt, UMC
Academic Dean, Jerusalem Center for Biblical Studies
Jackson, MS

“This course helps people critically reflect on the Christmas season’s biblical text. The study allows us to rethink the King of the Old Testament and the Servant King in the New Testament. It reveals the historical and cultural background of Jesus’ birth and opens discussion on the way Scripture is interpreted.”

- Rev. Martin Overson
Desert Hills Lutheran Church
Green Valley, AZ

“It stimulates people to begin digging deeper into Scripture, challenges them to read the Bible with a more discerning eye, and triggers enthusiasm for a broader understanding of God’s Word.”

- Pastor David Swenson
Lutheran Church of the Cross
St. Petersburg, FL
