

The Parables of Jesus

“This study helps us understand the original context and meaning of Jesus’ words and to discover how they apply to us today. It is an in-depth study of the Gospel period, and it gives us greater insight and understanding about the points Jesus was making in His parables.”

- Pastor Mike Stangeland
Old Westbrook Lutheran Church
Westbrook, MN

“It gives a very insightful approach to understanding the cultural background of Jesus’ time and the purpose and meaning of Jesus’ parables, and for applying their message to our lives today.”

- Pastor Roger Straub
Good Shepherd Lutheran Church
Lansing, MI

“It’s a new way to think about familiar biblical parables! The study:

- is clearly written with lots of understandable depth and detail,
- requires no pre-class preparation by students,
- is easy to teach by clergy or by lay persons who can pick up and go with it,
- focuses on the main teachings of the parables,
- attracts student attention immediately,
- sparks class participation and discussion,
- is excellent for any age group,
- offers a visual format that engages the user with the text’s content.”

- Pastor Todd Riordan
Faith Lutheran Church
Columbus, IN

“The parables are brought-to-life! Our Vacation Bible School program, using this study as the core curriculum, has everyone brimming with excitement and enthusiasm. Friends are bringing friends!”

- Pastor Deborah Hanson
Zion Lutheran Church
Oslo, MN

“Our men’s breakfast Bible study group is delving into a deeper study of the Bible and also into a deeper prayer life. I appreciate how prayer is taught from a biblical narrative perspective, which helps learners integrate the teachings of the Bible into the story of the Bible – and that transfers into the story of each person’s own daily life.”

- Mr. James Haack, DCE
